BE PREPARED FOR ADVERSE WEATHER & SCHEDULED POWER SHUTOFF

PUBLIC SAFETY POWER SHUTOFF

According to San Diego Gas and Electric and Southern California Edison, power is temporarily shut-off in fire-prone areas during adverse weather conditions as a safety precaution. This is known as a Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS). While these events are more likely to occur in high fire-risk areas, many patrons could be affected, and everyone should take the necessary steps to be prepared. Early notifications via phone calls, text alerts, emails and other means are sent out before power shut-off. Be sure to sign up for notifications to stay informed.

STAY INFORMED AND BE PREPARED DURING PSPS

- Update your contact information and/or sign up for outage notifications
- Follow your electric company's social media and local news
- Explore safe alternative power sources to operate critical equipment during PSPS events
- Prepare an emergency plan
- Prepare an emergency supply kit
- Have an evacuation checklist
